Make Your Setting Historic at Beaches Chapel!

Built circa 1886-87, the little chapel was dedicated as St. Paul's-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church on August 14, 1887. Originally located on Second Street South in what was then Pablo Beach (now Jacksonville Beach), the chapel was moved to 11th Avenue North and 5th Street in 1952. Donated to Central Christian Church of the Beaches (now Beaches Chapel) in 1970, the little chapel made it's third and final move. While in the care of Beaches Chapel, the little chapel has been refurbished and lovingly preserved. Today it is used by the students of Beaches Chapel School, and by the Children's Ministry of Beaches Chapel Church on Sundays and Wednesday nights. Each summer, the little chapel is transformed into a spectacular setting for our annual Vacation Bible School.

Choosing where to be married is one of the most important decisions you will make.
